Safety First

One in four accidents involves backing up. Considering that the average driver operates in reverse less than one mile every year, that statistic is even more alarming. While at our locations no vehicle should at any time be parked behind another vehicle or any of our mobile equipment. Things to keep in mind: Continuously check all mirrors while backing, always back slowly while continuously looking and listening for signs of trouble. Try to position the vehicle to avoid backing. Conduct a visual walk-around of the vehicle to check for maneuvering room or pedestrians. Whenever available, use a passenger to guide you during backing operations. Stoneco has a policy that all vehicles are backed in upon arrival and it has been very effective in reducing the risk associated with backing into traffic.
